MEET MELANIE DAVIS, PUBLISHING EXPERT

Life is made of adversities and joys; often the two come from the same source. Many of the greatest joys we experience stem from doing something meaningful and healing with our adversities... using them to serve others. One way to do this is to write a book, speak about and assist others going through similar challenges.

After suffering the loss of her seven-month daughter, Brynn, to SIDS, Melanie found healing and purpose by sharing her story with those who could be encouraged and inspired by the wisdom and purpose she found in her daughter's death. She developed The Triumph Program to assist others to discover write and share their own Triumph Stories and went on to become the founder of Triumph Press, which publishes The Triumph Book Series, as well as the books and stories of others who have overcome adversity.

Melanie has written, ghost written, coached and published numerous books, some which have made the Amazon Bestseller list, and brings her expertise to assist Preserving Family Ties Publishing authors. Email at: melanie.davis@preservingfamilytiesmedia.com
