GLOBAL RESOURCES FOR EFFECTIVE COPARENTING

An Interdisciplinary Quarterly
Addressing Family Research, Policy & Practice
For Professionals, Researchers and Legislators

“Contemporary Family Magazine is a Global Interdisciplinary tool to help improve child outcomes when parents separate”

- Dr. Mark Roseman,
Publisher

Published Quarterly with international readership.
Available online with print subscription options.

CONTEMPORARY FAMILY serves as a forum for family professionals, legislators, child advocates and parents working to improve child outcomes across the globe. We care about those issues which impact:

Single, Separated, Divorced, Never Married Parents • Step Families • Foster Parents
Same Sex Parents • Grandparents Raising Grandchildren • Child Development

EDITORIAL CONTENT provides practical thought and insight, ground breaking research, book reviews and stimulating interviews addressing child custody, court reform, conflict resolution.

OUR AUDIENCE is an international audience including parents and family professionals from across disciplines as psychology, family law, educators, social work, case managers, medicine, social scientists, academic and policy researchers. Many of our readers are parents, family professionals seeking guidance for improving co-parenting relationships, to better advocate for court reform and to intervene when parental alienation may be apparent in their child custody case.

MAJOR TOPICS ADDRESSED:

Child Custody • High Conflict Divorce • Parental Alienation • Child Welfare
Foster Parenting • Family Law • Therapy • Dependency • Public Policy
Education • Medicine • Child Advocacy • Child and Family Services
• Addiction • Juvenile Justice

PRESERVING FAMILY TIES

Preserving Family Ties Media has the mission to provide research, news, education, consulting and training, and multimedia publishing opportunities for parents and family professionals to improve child outcomes when families are in transition.

Preserving Family Ties (PFT) is named for founder, Dr. Mark D. Roseman's research-based book, Preserving Family Ties, An Authoritative Guide to Understanding Divorce and Child Custody, for Parents and Family Professionals. His approach has been to incorporate the latest understanding of dynamics, feelings and behaviors when parents separate and how best to co-parent when separation and divorce issues, cultural context and court reform in historical context further distinguishes Roseman's text.

PFT is the parent company for its flagship, Contemporary Family Magazine (www.contemporaryfamilymagazine.com) offering a venue for global writers and researchers on interdisciplinary topics addressing current family needs in order to foster universal understandings and interventions.

Additionally, PFT is the parent company for Mark David Roseman & Associates (MDR), a service enterprise specializing in support groups for parents suffering highly conflictual child custody matters, and experiencing the traumatic loss of children through their estrangement and alienating behaviors. MDR's facilitators serve as consultants for individual coaching, and also assistance to companies' human resources challenges with managing staff who are facing personal difficulties of divorce and child custody litigation.
